NOTICE TO ALL CREDITORS AND PARTIES IN INTEREST

RE: Institute for International Sports

On September 13, 2016 the Rhode Island Superior Court serving Washington County entered an Order appointing the undersigned Permanent Receiver (the "Order") of the assets and business of the Institute For International Sport ("IIS"). A copy of the Order is enclosed for your records and reference.

A Receivership is a state court insolvency proceeding. A Receiver is an officer of the Court, appointed for the purpose of representing the interests of all creditors. Our office does not and has not represented IIS or its principals, and I have been appointed as a neutral, impartial Receiver for the purpose of stabilizing financial affairs and ultimately marketing and selling IIS's assets for the highest value with the purpose of maximizing recovery for creditors.

In order that your interests be protected and to ensure that you receive notice of all pleadings in connection with this Receivership, I have enclosed a Proof of Claim form for you to complete, under oath and execute before a Notary Public, and return to me at the earliest possible date, but in no event later than January 9, 2017. Please be sure to include any and all documentation in support of your claim.

2. That said Receiver shall, no later than five (5) days from the date hereof, file herein a bond in the amount of $10,000.00 with corporate surety thereon authorized to do business in the State of Rhode Island conditioned that the Receiver will well and truly perform the duties of said office.

4. That this appointment is made in succession to the appointment of Temporary Receiver heretofore made by order of this Court, and the Receiver shall take and be vested with the title to all assets, property and choses-in-action which have heretofore accrued to the Temporary Receiver with power to confirm and ratify in writing such agreements as are entered into by such Temporary Receiver and to carry out and perform the same.

5. That the Receiver is authorized, in the Receiver's discretion, to manage and secure the assets of Respondent until further order of this Court, and to employ such persons as may be desirable for the foregoing purposes (except that the Receiver shall first obtain Court approval to hire attorneys, accountants, brokers, and turn around professionals) and, in connection therewith, to use such moneys as shall come into the Receiver's hands and possession, as far as the same shall be necessary, for the above purposes until further Order of this Court.

6. That the Receiver is authorized to incur expenses for goods and services and to purchase for cash such merchandise, supplies and materials as in the Receiver's discretion may be desirable or necessary for the management and security of Respondent.

7. That said Receiver be and hereby is authorized and empowered to sell, transfer and convey said Receiver's right, title and interest and the right, title and interest of Respondent's assets, including real estate, for such sum or sums of money as to said Receiver appears reasonable and proper, at private sale or sales, provided, however, that approval is first given for such sale or sales by this Court on application by the Receiver, or after such notice as the Court may require.

Such a public auction sale conducted by said Receiver in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph shall be considered and is hereby declared to be a commercially reasonable sale, and such sale shall constitute compliance with the requirements of a commercially reasonable sale as set forth in Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in Rhode Island.

9. That said Receiver be, and hereby is, authorized and empowered, as soon as there are sufficient funds available, to pay all City, State and United States taxes of any kind, nature and description, including withholding taxes.

10. In fulfillment of the reporting requirements set forth in Rule 66 (e) of the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure, the Receiver shall file with the Court the Reports referred to in said Rule, as and when the Receiver deems necessary or advisable under the circumstances, or, in any event, as and when required by Order of this Court. In addition, the Receiver shall file with the Court, on or before May 1st and October 1st of each year, a Receivership Control Calendar Report in accordance with Rhode Island Superior Court Administrative Order No. 98-7.

12. That, pursuant to and in compliance with Rhode Island Supreme Court Executive Order No. 95-01, this Court finds that the designation of the aforescribed person for appointment as Receiver is warranted and required because of said Receiver's specialized expertise and experience.
