Dear Ms. McCaughey:

In regard to your letter of September 12, 2008 regarding the incorporation of The Bridge: A Montessori Academy, it would appear from our review of the documents supplied and a review of the application for approval of educational programs for very young children that the proposed corporation does include the operation of a school as encompassed by the provisions of Section 16-40-1(b), of the General laws of RI, 1956, as amended. The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education has approved this school as an educational program for very young children.

Sincerely,

Michele Palermo
