ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

THIRD ARTICLE: The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is as follows:

Membership to this church shall be extended to those persons who have obeyed the scriptural teaching on becoming a Christian and resolve themselves to abide by the teachings of Jesus Christ in practice and word as they are presented in the New Testament. Membership becomes effective when a person publicly affirms one's belief in and obedience to these Christian beliefs as presented in the New Testament. Membership is considered terminated if a member absents oneself for a period of 12 months, without reason, resigns, or transfers to another congregation.

FOURTH ARTICLE:

derived an improper personal benefit. No amendment to or repeal of this provision shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any officer or director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

FOURTH ARTICLE B:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, any member, officer and/or director that initiates and/or is a party to a law suit against the church has by one's action withdrawn membership from the body of the church and resigned from any role, office or directorship within the church.

FOURTH ARTICLE C:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this church (corporation) is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefits of or be distributable to its members, trustee, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the above paragraph.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section IRC 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section IRC 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the corporation shall, after necessary expenses thereof, be distributed by gift or contribution without compensation to another similar not-for profit religious corporation or organization which is recognized as exempt under IRC 501(c)(3) entity, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.
