The Sanskrit Library has consistently maintained an office on the East Side of Providence since its inception in 2002. That office has been at 89 Cole Avenue for several years now and continues to be there. My mother attempted to forward me the RI Corporation annual report renewal document while I was visiting Iowa temporarily this spring. Apparently the post-office returned the letter to you and did not forward it. The corporate office, however, has not moved. Forwarded mail is NOT sufficient evidence of a corporation failing to maintain an office in the State of RI and does not justify having put "The corporation is under revocation notice for failure to maintain a registered office".
