Article 6.1 Preemptive Rights

6.1.1 The Corporation shall have preemptive rights.

6.1.2. If any stockholder shall at any time desire to give or to sell all or any part of his/her/its shares of stock, he/she/it shall first offer the same to the Corporation and shall notify the president or secretary of the Corporation in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, stating the number of shares he/she/it desires to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, the terms of the sale (or transfer in the case of a gift), the lowest price at which such shares are to be disposed of (in the case of a sale), and the name of the person or entity to whom or to which they are to be sold or transferred. Within thirty (30) days after the receipt of any such notice, the Corporation shall elect whether or not to accept such offer. If the Corporation shall elect to purchase the shares so offered, the secretary or treasurer, or some other officer designated by the stockholders shall forthwith and within said Thirty (30) days deliver in person to such stockholder or mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to him/her/it at his/her/its usual post office address as stated on the books of the Corporation, a notice in writing signed by such officer, of the election of the Corporation to purchase such stock on such terms and at such price (in the case of a sale) or at a price equal to the book value of such stock as of such date of offer as reflected on the books and records of the Corporation (in the case of a gift). The Corporation shall have an additional Thirty (30) days after the date of such election to purchase to make payment for such stock. The stockholder may receive the purchase price for such stock at the office of the Corporation upon transfer to the Corporation of the shares sold.

6.1.3. If the Corporation shall not elect to accept said offer, or if notice of election to purchase shall not be given by the Corporation within the time limit above, then the stockholder making the offer is at liberty to sell or give the same, provided said dispositive action is made within Thirty (30) days of the Corporation's decision not to so purchase, and except in the case of a gift, at a price not less than the price at which such stock was offered to the Corporation.

6.1.4. The Corporation may require affidavits from the selling stockholder and the purchaser of such stock as to the price paid and the terms therefor before transferring such stock upon the books of the Corporation. All of the stockholders, exclusive of the offering stockholder, may, in particular instances, consent to any such proposed sale or other disposition, but no such consent or waiver shall extend to other or subsequent instances. Any stock acquired by the Corporation under the above provisions shall be held in the name of this Corporation subject to the control and disposal of the stockholders who may, if they see fit, offer it for sale at such price as they may deem proper to the stockholders of this Corporation, in which event each stockholder shall have an equal right with the others pro rata to their holdings to purchase the same; provided, however, that if any stockholder does not purchase his full proportionate share of the stock, said proportionate share may be purchased by the other stockholders pro rata to their holdings.

6.1.5. If any transfer of stock is made or attempted contrary to the provisions hereof, the Corporation and the other stockholders shall have the same options to purchase all of the stock so transferred or attempted to be transferred under the same terms and conditions provided herein.

Any such offer to transfer shall be deemed to have been made when the Corporation and all of the other stockholders receive actual notice of the transfer or attempted transfer. If the Corporation and the other stockholders do not exercise their respective options regarding such stock, neither the stockholder who transferred or attempted to transfer such stock, nor the transferee or intended transferee shall be required to transfer any of such stock to the Corporation or to the other stockholders. Further, the Corporation may refuse to recognize any transferee as one of its stockholders for any purpose, including, without limitation, for purposes of dividend and voting rights and for purposes of allocation of income, losses, and business expenses, until all applicable provisions hereof have been complied with to the satisfaction of the Corporation.

6.1.6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be construed as releasing any such stock from any applicable state or federal laws or regulations concerning transfer of the same. Further, any such stock transferred in accordance with this Agreement shall, to the extent permitted by law, continue to be subject to the terms hereof and the transferee shall be deemed to have consented to the terms of these by-laws. Upon delivery of such stock, such transferee shall be bound hereby and shall, on request of the Corporation, execute such acknowledgment or other documentation as the Corporation may request.
