AND
PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS
AT THE
JANUARY SESSION, A.D., 1996

JOINT COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATIVE SERVICES
SPEAKER JOHN B. HARWOOD, CHAIRPERSON

LAW REVISION

1996

RHODE ISLAND STATE LIBRARY

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. The property, real and personal situated in the town of Gloucester, held for or by Victory Sportsman Club, Inc., incorporated as a nonbusiness corporation, to an amount not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) shall, at all times, be exempt from all taxes so long as said property shall be used for the purposes for which said corporation was incorporated, and so long as the Victory Sportsman Club shall maintain nonprofit tax exempt status with the Internal Revenue Service. In the event of disbanding of the Club, the building(s) and the land shall revert to the town of Gloucester.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE WESTERLY CEMETERY COMPANY

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of an act entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Westerly Cemetery Company", passed at the October Session, 1849 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The estate, property and affairs of said corporation shall be managed by five trustees, a majority of whom shall be a quorum capable of doing business. The trustees shall be elected to five year terms, it being the intention to elect only one trustee at every annual meeting.

At the next annual meeting, five trustees shall be voted in, one for a one year term, one for a two year term, one for a three year term, one for a four year term and one for a five year term. The election shall be by ballot, and every proprietor of a lot, or if there be more than one proprietor of any such lot, then such one as a majority of the proprietors of such original lot, for the time being, shall designate to represent such lot, shall have either in person or by proxy, one vote for each such lot, and the person being a lot proprietor, having a majority of all the votes given at such election, shall be declared a duly elected trustee for each of the five different terms.

At every annual meeting subsequent to the next annual meeting, one trustee shall be voted in for a five year term. The election shall be by ballot, and every proprietor of a lot, or if there be more than one proprietor of any such lot, then such one as a majority of the proprietors
