Re: The Bancorp Bank – Fictitious Name Filing

Dear: Mr. Mollis:

Mark Mucha of The Bancorp Bank ("Bank:") has contacted the Division of Banking ("Division") regarding the Bank's attempt to file a fictitious name statement with your office with respect to leasing activity contemplated by the Bank.

The Bank is a Delaware state chartered commercial bank. Pursuant to R. I. Gen. Laws § 19-4-17(a), entitled, Unauthorized banking business:

No person, except regulated institutions, including any bank or trust company that has established a trust branch office in this state pursuant to the provisions of § 19-3.1-6(b), or banks or credit unions organized under the laws of the United States or of any other state within the United States shall use any sign at the place where its business is transacted, having on it any name containing the word or words "bank", "savings bank", "loan and investment bank", "trust company", "credit union", or other word or words, indicating, in the opinion of the director or the director's designee, that the place or office is the place or office of a regulated institution or bank or credit union duly organized under the laws of the United States or of any other state within the United States. The secretary of state shall not accept for filing any articles of association or incorporation, or amendment thereof, containing the word or words without the approval of the director or the director's designee.

The Division has no objection to the filing by the Bank of a fictitious filing statement with your office for the exclusive purpose of conducting leasing activity in Rhode Island. Please contact the undersigned at (401) 462-9560 or at scayouet@dbi.state.ri.us with any questions you may have regarding this matter.

Very truly yours,

Steven L. Cayouette, CFE
State Chief Bank Examiner
