SIXTH. Provisions (if any) for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation:

(a) To guarantee any bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness created by or dividends on or certain amount per share in liquidation of the capital stock of any other corporation or corporations created by this state or by any other state, country, nation or government, provided such other corporation is formed for purposes similar to the purposes of this corporation or is engaged in the same or a substantially similar business or transacts business with this corporation or is owned or controlled by the same or substantially similar interests; but nothing herein contained shall authorize this corporation to carry on the business of a surety or indemnity company.

(b) To guarantee in any way permitted by law the performance of any of the contracts or other undertakings in which the corporation may otherwise be or become interested, of any corporation, association, partnership, firm, trustee, syndicate, individual, government, state, municipality, or other political or governmental division or subdivision, domestic or foreign as may be permitted by law, AND/OR,

(c) To promote or assist, financially or otherwise, corporations, syndicates, partnerships, trusts, trustees, individuals or associations of all kinds and to give any guaranty in connection therewith for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligation or undertaking.

(d) R.I.G.L. Section 7-1.2-707, 1956, as amended, is hereby adopted.

(e) The corporation or any subsidiary of affiliated company thereof shall indemnify and hold harmless each person (and his heirs, administrators and executors) who shall serve at any time hereafter as a director or officer of the corporation or any subsidiary or affiliated company thereof, from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which such person shall become subject by reason of his having heretofore or hereafter been a director or officer of the corporation or any subsidiary of affiliated company thereof, or by reason of any action alleged to have been heretofore or hereafter taken or omitted by him as such director or officer, and shall reimburse each such person for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim of liability; provided, however, that no such person shall be indemnified against or be reimbursed for, any expense incurred in connection with any claim or liability arising out of his own negligence or willful misconduct.

The rights accruing to any person under the foregoing provisions of this Article shall not exclude any other right to which he may be lawfully entitled, nor shall anything herein contained restrict the right of the corporation to indemnify or reimburse such person in any proper case even though not specifically herein provided for. The corporation, its directors, officers, employees and agents shall be fully protected in taking any action or making any payment under this Article, or in refusing so to do, in reliance upon the advice of counsel.
