Attachment to Article FOURTH

- 1. Nonprofit. The corporation is not organized for profit.
- 2. Tax Exempt Status. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(2) of the Code, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(2) of the Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent tax laws.
- 3. Distributions in Liquidation. In the event of liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, after payment of or provision for all of the liabilities of the corporation, all of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed, pursuant to Sections 7-6-51 and 7-6-52 of the Rhode Island General Laws, to one or more organizations with similar purposes and exemption under Section 501(c)(2) or Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, organized for nonprofit purposes and contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) of the Code.
- 4. No Private Inurement. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any private individual, including any director or employee of the corporation (collectively, "Private Individuals"), and no Private Individuals shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit of any kind therefrom, except that the corporation may pay to any Private Individual reasonable compensation or payments for services or activities in furtherance of one or more of its purposes.
- 5. Prohibited Activities. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- 6. Nondiscrimination. The corporation's policy to offer equal employment opportunities and services includes the recognition that harassment of people on account of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, national origin, or disability will not be tolerated.
- 7. Elimination of Directors' Personal Liabilities. No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director of the corporation (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. No amendment, modification or repeal of this paragraph, directly or by adoption of an inconsistent provision of these Articles, shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment, modification or repeal. No director of the corporation shall be compensated by the corporation for serving in such capacity.
