3. The specific purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

The Furever Dachshund Rescue's Mission is to act in the best interest of all dachshunds including, but not limited to, the rescue, rehabilitation and re-homing of abandoned, neglected and stray dachshunds. We will actively educate people to succeed as dachshund owners and encourage awareness of overpopulation, euthanasia, puppy mills, and the consequences of purchasing as opposed to adopting from a rescue or shelter. We will respect others in the rescue community and learn from those who care for rescue animals while having patience and understanding for people who can no longer care for their dogs.
