6. Additional provisions, if any, not inconsistent with law, which the members elect to have set forth in these Articles of Organization, including, but not limited to, any limitation of the purpose or duration for which the limited liability company is formed, and any other provision which may be included in an operating agreement:

- 6.1 The limited liability company may be governed by an operating agreement which may be amended from time to time by the members.
- 6.2 A manager of the limited liability company, if there be any, or a member acting in the capacity of a manager (hereinafter called a “manager”), shall not be personally liable to the limited liability company or to its members, for monetary damages for breach of any duty provided for in Section 17 of the Rhode Island Limited Liability Company Act, as may hereafter be amended from time to time (the “Act”), except for liability of a manager for:
  - (1) breach of the manager’s duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members;
  - (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
  - (3) the liability imposed pursuant to the provisions of Section 32 of the Act relating to wrongful distributions; or
  - (4) any transaction from which the manager derived an improper personal benefit, unless said transaction was with the informed consent of the members of a majority of the disinterested managers.
- 6.3 The limited liability company shall indemnify any member, manager, agent or employee, past or present, of the limited liability company (an “Indemnified Person”) to the full extent permissible pursuant to Section 4(k) of the Act; provided, however, that the limited liability company shall not indemnify any Indemnified Person for:
  - (1) breach of the Indemnified Person’s duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members;

- (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- (3) the liability imposed pursuant to the provisions of Section 32 of the Act relating to wrongful distributions; or
- (4) any transaction from which the Indemnified Person derived an improper personal benefit, unless said transaction was with the consent of the members of a majority of the disinterested managers.
