ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION (continuation)

1041 Firefighter Training, Inc.

SECTION 6

The corporation may carry on any business, operation or activity referred to in Section 4, including, without limitation, firefighting and fire safety training, to the same extent as might an individual, whether as principal, agent, contractor or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction or a joint venture or other arrangement with any corporation, association, trust, firm or individual, including, without limitation, firefighting and fire safety training.

The corporation may carry on any business, operation or activity through a wholly-owned or a partly-owned subsidiary.

The corporation may be a partner in any business enterprise which it would have power to conduct by itself.

The directors may make, amend or repeal the By-Laws, in whole or in part, except with respect to any provision thereof which, by law or by the By-Laws, require action by the stockholders.

Meetings of the stockholders may be held anywhere in the United States.

The directors may specify the manner in which the accounts of the corporation shall be kept and may determine what constitutes net earnings; profits and surplus; what amounts, if any, shall be reserved for any corporation purpose; and what amounts, if any, shall be declared as dividends.

The directors shall have the power to fix, from time to time, their compensation. No person shall be disqualified from holding any office by reason of any interest.

To the extent permitted by law, the authorizing or ratifying vote of all of the shares of the capital stock of this corporation outstanding and entitled to vote for directors at any annual meeting or a special meeting duly called for the purpose (whether such vote is passed before or after judgment rendered in a suit with respect to such contract, transaction or act) shall: validate any contract, transaction or action of this corporation or of the Board of Director or of any committee thereof with regard to all stockholders of this corporation, whether or not of record at the time of such vote and with regard to all creditors and other claimants under this corporation.

The corporation shall have all the powers granted to corporations by the laws of the State of Rhode Island, provided that no such power shall include any activity inconsistent with the Business Corporation Law or the General Laws of said State of Rhode Island.
