ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION - #6

EXHIBIT "A"

1. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of Members, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of Members, may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all Members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.
2. Except for those actions excluded by Section 7-16-21(b)(1), (2) and (3) of the Rhode Island Limited Liability Company Act, any action required or permitted to be taken by vote of the Members may be taken without a meeting on the written consent of less than all of the Members entitled to vote on such action, if the Members that consent would be entitled to cast at least the minimum number of votes which would be required to take the action at a meeting at which all Members entitled to vote on such action are present.
3. No Member shall have personal liability to the Company or to any other Member for monetary damages for breach of such Member's duty as a Member, provided that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of such Member: (i) for any breach of the member's duty of loyalty to the Company or to the other Members; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 77-16-32 of the Rhode Island Limited Liability Company act; or (iv) for any transaction from which the Member derived an improper personal benefit, unless such transaction was with the informed consent of the other Members.
4. The ownership of the Company is subject to transfer restrictions contained in its Operating Agreement and copies thereof are on file at the registered office of the Company. Membership interests of the Company are transferable only upon compliance with the provisions of said transfer restrictions.
