~~(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares.....
(State (A) the number of the shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be decided to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be decided but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)~~

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

Shareholders shall have preemptive rights to the extent provided by law.

SIXTH: So long as there shall be more than one holder of the outstanding capital stock of this corporation, no holder of any of the capital stock shall transfer any of such stock without first offering the same to the corporation at the lowest price at which he is willing to dispose of the same, said offer to be in writing and to include a true statement of the names and addresses of the transferee or transferees to whom said stockholder intends to transfer his stock if his said offer is not accepted by the corporation as hereinafter provided.

Said offer and statement shall be addressed and delivered to the Secretary of the corporation, or in case the stockholder making such offer be the Secretary, then to the President. The Secretary or the President, as the case may be, shall thereupon call or cause to be called a special meeting of the holders of the stock of the corporation then outstanding, to be held within ten (10) days after the receipt of said offer, for the purpose of taking action with respect to the same. The corporation, through the holders of the stock then outstanding, shall have thirty (30) days after the receipt of said offer to accept or reject said offer, and until action thereon shall be taken or until the expiration of said thirty (30) days, whichever shall first occur, no transfer of any of his capital stock shall be made by the stockholder submitting the offer, but if the stockholders shall reject said offer or if no action shall be taken by them prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) days, such stockholder may then transfer the same at not less than said price to any transferee or transferees described in said statement at any time within six (6) months after the expiration of said thirty (30) days, but not otherwise or thereafter without again complying with the provisions of this Article. At any such meeting the shares of stock held by the stockholder submitting said offer shall not be counted as outstanding for the purpose of determining what shall constitute a quorum and a majority vote and the stockholder so submitting said offer shall not be entitled to vote at said meeting.

All transfers of the capital stock of the corporation (except transfers upon the death of a stockholder from his estate to his next of kin or to the legatee or legatees named in his will) are intended to be included in the prohibitions of this Article, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a transfer by virtue of a pledge, attachment or other encumbrance.

Any transfer contrary to the foregoing provisions shall be void.

The corporation, by vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the capital stock then outstanding, may waive the provisions of this Article with respect to any particular transfer, but the stock with reference to which said provisions are waived shall not be counted as outstanding for the purpose of determining what shall constitute a quorum and a majority vote and the holder of said stock shall not be entitled to vote at said meeting.
