5. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to 7-1.2 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended

The corporation shall have the right in case of sale of any common stock by any holder thereof to purchase said stock at the lowest price at which such stockholder is willing to sell the same before such stock may be sold to any other party; and no sale of any such stock to any other party than the corporation shall be valid unless the offer to sell such stock, at the lowest price at which thereof is willing to sell, shall have first been received in writing by the corporation. The corporation shall have ten (10) days in which to accept or reject-said offer.

Any stockholder who shall have offered his stock for sale to the corporation in accordance with the foregoing provisions at any time within twenty (20) days after the rejection of such offer by the corporation, or if within such period the corporation shall neither accept nor reject such offer, then within twenty (20) days after such offer shall have been received by the corporation, sell the stock so offered to the corporation to any other party, but not for a price lower than that at which such stock shall have been previously offered to the corporation, and the corporation may require affidavits from the stockholder and the purchaser of such stock as to the price paid therefore before transferring such stock upon the books of the corporation.
