6. Brief Description of the Character of Business Conducted in Rhode Island

What we do: Enviro-Logistics, Inc. is a technical consulting firm that transforms your professional outputs through innovative ideas. We offer quality professional services that focus on upfront planning and analysis of potential solutions for your best possible results. We help you to increase your productive output, and functional capabilities, while improving your customers' satisfaction. Who we are: Enviro-Logistics, Inc. is a small, woman-owned business, incorporated in December 2000, that serves both commercial and government markets. How we work: We achieve results by meeting difficult deadlines for our clients through a strategic combination of skills, values, and perseverance. At the foundation of every project lies a logical tactical approach toward solving the problem. Once the problem has been framed, we strive toward prompt, yet quality-driven work. Our advice is honest and independent, keeping our clients' best interests in mind. Our clients trust us and appreciate our personalized approach in producing high-quality, reliable work for them. We are known for our ability to take highly technical material and present it so that it is easy to understand. We prepare proposals, statements of work, develop training materials (including on-line educational or informational presentation), prepare help-desk manuals, conduct research on-line and then write reports based on this research. We create surveys, compile them and we can consolidate the results from surveys into reports that show trends and facilitate analysis. We also provide potable water solutions, which consider environmental, hydro-political and other maintainability and supportability issues. Description: Enviro-Logistics, Inc. is recognized in excellence in logistics, desktop publications, technical writing and contracts management. Enviro-Logistics Inc. provides support to other companies, agencies and the Government.
