A. A Manager of the limited liability company shall not be personally liable to the limited liability company or to its Members for the monetary damages for breach of any duty provided for in Section 17 of the Rhode Island Limited Liability Company Act, as may hereafter be amended (the "Act"), except for:

- (1) Liability for breach of the Managers duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its Members.
- (2) Liability for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law;
- (3) Liability imposed pursuant to the provisions of Section 32 of the Act,; or
- (4) Liability for any transaction from which a Manager derived an improper personal benefit, unless said transaction was with the informed consent of the members or a majority of the disinterested Managers.

B.

(1) The Members of the limited liability company may include provisions in the limited liability company's Operating Agreement, or the Managers may authorize agreements to be entered into with each Member, manager, agent, or employee past or present, of the limited liability company for the purpose of indemnifying such person in the manner and to the extent permitted by the Act.

(2) In addition to the authority conferred upon the Members and Managers of the limited liability company by the foregoing Paragraph 1, the Members of the limited liability company may include provisions in the Operating Agreement or the Managers may authorize agreements to be entered into with each person, for the purpose of indemnifying such person in the manner and to the extent provided herein:

(a) the Operating Agreement provisions or the agreements authorized hereby may provide that the limited liability company shall, subject to the provisions of this Article Sixth, pay, on behalf of an indemnified person any loss or expenses arising from any claim or claims which are made against the indemnified person by reason of any covered act of the indemnified person.
