ARTICLE ELEVEN

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation and the power to amend or restate this Certificate of Formation shall be vested exclusively in the Board of Trustees of the Corporation.

ARTICLE TWELVE

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding (as hereinafter defined) because the person (i) is or was a trustee or officer of the Corporation or (ii) while a trustee or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, employee, agent or similar functionary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, to the fullest extent that a corporation may grant indemnification to a trustee under the Texas Business Organizations Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. Such right shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the maximum extent permitted under the Texas Business Organizations Code, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. If a claim for indemnification or advancement of expenses hereunder is not paid in full by the Corporation within ninety (90) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim, and if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to also be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action that such indemnification or advancement of costs of defense is not permitted under the Texas Business Organizations Code, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Trustees or any committee thereof or special legal counsel) to have made its determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of, or advancement of costs of defense to, the claimant is permissible in the circumstances nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Trustees or any committee thereof or special legal counsel) that such indemnification or advancement is not permissible shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that such indemnification or advancement is not permissible. In the event of the death of any person having a right of indemnification under the foregoing provisions, such right shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, administrators and personal representatives. The rights conferred above shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, bylaw, resolution of trustees, agreement or otherwise. The Corporation may additionally indemnify any person covered by the grant of mandatory indemnification contained in this Article to such further extent as is permitted by law and may indemnify any other person to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or a similar arrangement (including, but not limited to, a trust fund, self-insurance, a security interest or lien on the assets of the Corporation, or a letter of credit, guaranty or surety arrangement) on behalf of any person who is serving the Corporation (or another entity at the request of the Corporation) against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in such a capacity or arising out of status as such a person, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against that liability under this Article or by statute. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article, the Corporation may not indemnify or maintain insurance or a similar arrangement on behalf of any person if such indemnification or maintenance of insurance or similar arrangement would subject the Corporation to income or excise tax under the Code.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN

A trustee of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for any act or omission in such trustee's capacity as a trustee, except that this Article does not authorize the elimination or limitation of the liability of a trustee to the extent the trustee is found liable for: (i) a breach of the trustee's duty of loyalty to the Corporation; (ii) an act or omission not in good faith that constitutes a breach of duty of the trustee to the Corporation or an act or omission that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) a transaction from which the trustee received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the trustee's office; or (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a trustee is expressly provided by an applicable statute. The foregoing elimination of liability to the Corporation shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights, limitations of liability or indemnity to which a trustee may be entitled under any other provision of the Certificate of Formation or Bylaws of the Corporation, contract or agreement, vote of trustees, principle of law or otherwise. Any repeal or amendment of this Article shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a trustee of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which a trustee of the Corporation is not personally liable as set forth in the foregoing provisions of this Article, the liability of a trustee shall be eliminated to the full extent permitted by any amendment to the Texas Business Organizations Code hereafter enacted that further eliminates or permits the elimination of the liability of a trustee.,

ARTICLE FOURTEEN

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of trustees or committee members of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting, if a consent or consents in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by at least a majority of the trustees or committee members, as the case may be, then in office (or such greater number as may be required by this Certificate of Formation, the Bylaws of the Corporation or the Texas Business Organizations Code). Prompt notice of the taking of any action by trustees or a committee without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those trustees or committee members who did not consent in writing to the action.
