Articles of Incorporation - MYCENAEAN - PURPOSE

The general purposes for which this Corporation/Organization has been established are as follows:

The purpose for which the Non-Profit Corporation is formed is set forth in the attached Articles of Incorporation.

The Corporation/Organization is established within the meaning of IRS Publication 557 Section 501(c)(3) Organization of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code and shall be operated exclusively for educational and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation will serve as an impartial custodian of open-source software that collects and shares data centrally and disseminates such information to institutions of higher learning as well as academic and medical researchers. The software the Organization provides is intended to instruct the public on subjects useful to the individual and benefits the community on topics related to public health. The Organization's software is directed towards spreading research that benefits the public and is built on research performed globally and for the benefit of all, with results made available to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. The Corporation is organized to further develop and fund the cost of running the servers that host and spread the use of open-source systematic review software.

The Corporation also dedicates itself to the education of future healthcare researchers, particularly in the field of Evidence Synthesis in Health. It will use funds raised to create educational resources free of charge and promote best practices in the field of Evidence-Based Information Synthesis, which includes but is not limited to the study, conduct and dissemination of Systematic Reviews.

The Corporation will also make itself available for consulting services and may enter into written legal agreements between the Corporation and other business entities or otherwise to raise additional funds to secure the operation and longevity of the Corporation in order to further its goals.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes described in section 501(c)(3). No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future.

In addition, this Corporation/Organization has been formed for the purpose of performing all things incidental to, or appropriate in, the foregoing specific and primary purposes. However, the Corporation/Organization shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or the exercise of any powers which are not in furtherance of its primary non-profit purposes.

The Corporation/Organization shall hold and may exercise all such powers as may be conferred upon any nonprofit organization by the laws of the State of Rhode Island and as may be necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and attainment of the purposes of the Corporation/Organization. At no time and in no event shall the Corporation/Organization participate in any activities which have not been permitted to be carried out by a Corporation/Organization exempt under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code").
