Article 4

4. Provisions, if any, not inconsistent with the law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in these Articles of Incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation are:

- (a) The Corporation shall be nonprofit, shall not have or issue shares of capital stock, and shall not declare or pay dividends. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 3. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Code), or participating in, or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are described by Section 170(c)(2) of the Code and deductible under Sections 170(a) and 170(b)(1)(A) of the Code.
- (b) Upon dissolution, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation to and among any existing nonprofit corporations organized for educational, scientific, charitable, religious, or literary purposes, which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code in such manner and in such proportions as the Board of Directors shall prescribe.

- (c) No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of the director's duty as a director; provided that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its members; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.
