A Special Meeting of the Shareholders of Amica Property and Casualty Insurance Company was held at One Hundred Amica Way, Lincoln, Rhode Island on Thursday, February 11, 2016 at 10:16 A.M. Robert A. DiMuccio, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, presided at the meeting.

Representing the Board of Amica Mutual Insurance Company as the Sole Shareholder of Amica Property and Casualty Insurance Company were Directors Chadwick, Aiken, Machtley, Hittner, Snead, Jeans, Reaves, Plotkin, DiMuccio, DeGraan and Avery.

Paul A. Pyne, Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer; James P. Loring, Jr., Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer; Jill H. Andy, Senior Vice President; and Suzanne E. Casey, Senior Assistant Vice President and Secretary, were also present.

The President reported that at this morning's Annual Meeting of the Policyholders of Amica Mutual Insurance Company, the policyholders had voted to amend the Company's By-Laws to change the number of directors from twelve to not less than nine and not more than thirteen and to change the retirement age of a director from 72 to 75 (with the possibility of a one year extension subject to approval by the board).

The President then recommended that Attachment B(a) of the Charter of Amica Property and Casualty Insurance Company be revised from:

"The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the bylaws but the number shall not be less than ten. In case of a vacancy through death, resignation or disqualification or other cause, the remaining directors, by affirmative vote of the majority thereof, at a meeting duly called for that purpose may elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the director whose place shall be vacant, and until the election of a successor. All directors shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified."

to

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Board voted the shares of Amica Property and Casualty Insurance Company to revise Attachment B(a) of the Company's Charter to read as follows:

"The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the bylaws but the number shall be not less than nine and not more than thirteen. In case of a vacancy through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining directors, by affirmative vote of the majority thereof, at a meeting duly called for that purpose may elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the director whose place shall be vacant, and until the election of a successor. All directors shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified."

Next the President recommended the wording on Article II, Section 1 of the Company's By-Laws be revised from:

"The board of directors of the corporation shall consist of twelve (12) persons, a majority of whom are neither officers nor employees of the company and shall be elected as prescribed by the charter of the corporation."

to

Upon motion duly made and seconded and pursuant to Article VI of the By-Laws, the Board voted the shares of Amica Property and Casualty Insurance Company to revise Article II, Section 1 of the Company's By-Laws to read as follows:

"The board of directors of the corporation shall consist of not less than nine and not more than thirteen persons, a majority of whom are neither officers nor employees of the company and shall be elected as prescribed by the charter of the corporation."

The President then recommended revising the wording on Article II, Section 2 of the By-Laws from:

"Directors shall retire from the Board of Directors no later than the Annual Meeting next following a Director's attainment of age 72. No Director may be elected or reelected who has attained age 72."

to

Upon motion duly made and seconded and pursuant to Article VI of the By-Laws, the Board voted the shares of Amica Property and Casualty Insurance Company to revise Article II, Section 2 of the Company's By-Laws to read as follows:

"Directors shall retire from the board of directors no later than the annual meeting next following a director's attainment of age 75. A director's retirement may be extended for one year upon recommendation of the nominating committee and approval by the board of directors."

The meeting was adjourned at 10:19 A.M.

- (l) To make donations for the public welfare or for the charitable, scientific or educational purposes.
- (m) To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of governmental authority.
- (n) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees.
- (o) To provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officers, or employees, or on the life of any stockholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by such stockholder.
- (p) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager or any partnership, enterprise or venture.
- (q) To adopt emergency bylaws and, through its directors, officers and employees, to exercise all powers set forth in section 7-1, 1-25, 1, Rhode Island General Laws, 1956 (Reenactment of 1992), and all acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto.
- (r) To indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents in accordance with the provisions of section 7-1. 1-4. 1, Rhode Island General Laws, 1956 (Reenactment of 1992), and all acts in amendment thereof or in addition thereto.

(s) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes; unless otherwise restricted by Title 27 of the General Laws of Rhode Island or by regulation of the Director of Business Regulation.

(B)

(a) The number of directors of the corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the bylaws but the number shall be not less than nine and not more than thirteen. In case of a vacancy through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, the remaining directors, by affirmative vote of the majority thereof, at a meeting duly called for that purpose may elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the director whose place shall be vacant, and until the election of a successor. All directors shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

(b) Directors of the corporation will not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of the director's duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (iii) the liability imposed pursuant to the provisions of R.I.G.L. Sec. 7-1.1-43, as amended from time to time, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. If the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation will be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Article by the corporation will not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

(c) The corporation shall obtain a certificate of compliance pursuant to procedures established by the Department of Business Regulations.

The Corporation shall comply with all statutory requirements necessary to commence business as a domestic insurance company.
