Dear Mr. Morris;

I am writing this letter as an authorized and named officer of Chartered Marketing Services, Inc and of its parent company, Intersections, Inc. Chartered Marketing Services Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Intersections, Inc., a Delaware Corporation headquartered in Chantilly, VA. filed a business corporation annual return for 2007 in a timely manner. Our filing was returned for modification of the number of issued and outstanding shares reported for Chartered Marketing Services Corporation.

Intersections acquired Chartered Marketing Services Corporation in July of 2006 by acquiring all of its issued and outstanding shares at the time of purchase. We retired those shares and issued new shares. The new shares total 1,000 shares issued and outstanding at $0.01 par value.

Pursuant to your instructions, I am re-sending the return with our payment of $50.00 and an additional payment of $10.00 filing fee with a request that your records be amended to reflect the change in Chartered Marketing Services, Inc issued and outstanding shares from 15 million common and 1 million preferred to a total of 1 thousand shares of common stock issued and outstanding at a par value of $0.01 and Zero shares of preferred stock issued and outstanding.

Sincerely:

Madalyn Behneman
Principal Financial Officer and Treasurer
