ORIGINAL ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION (NON-BUSINESS CORPORATION)

Know all Men by these Presents, That we ANTONIA ANDRADE, NELLO PITTS, ROBERT J. WEST, THOMAS D. TWITCHELL, and HELEN DOOLAN

all of lawful age, hereby agree to and with each other:

FIRST. To associate ourselves together with the intention of forming a corporation under and by virtue of the powers conferred by Chapter 7-6 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended.

SECOND. Said corporation shall be known by the name of CAPITOL HILL
INTERACTION COUNCIL, INC.

THIRD. Said corporation is constituted for the purpose of serving the people of "Capitol Hill", an area within the City of Providence lying within the boundaries of Promenade Street to the south, the railroad property to the east, Berkshire Street to the North and Huxley Street to the west, and generally known as the Smith Hill-Chad Brown area, by actively fostering comprehensive action relevant to the needs of all the people living and being within such area; being concerned with the needs of the people within the area in the field of civic and spiritual betterment; instituting and undertaking programs for the social and moral welfare of said people and enlisting volunteers to augment and carry out such programs; providing advice and counsel to the people within the area; creating avenues for the dissemination of news and information through print, voice and other available media and generally to engage in such activities as shall be beneficial to the welfare and happiness of all of the people within the area community described.

In addition to the foregoing, said corporation shall have the following powers and authority, viz:—(See §§ 7-6-7, 7-6-8 of the General Laws.)

To do any lawful act which is necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of its incorporation. Without limiting or enlarging the effect of this general grant of authority, it is hereby specifically provided that every such corporation shall have power:

- (a) to have perpetual succession in its corporate name unless a period for its duration is limited in its articles of association or charter;
- (b) to sue and be sued in its corporate name;
- (c) to have and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure;
- (d) to elect such officers and appoint such agents as its purposes require, and to fix their compensation and define their duties;
- (e) to make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this state, or with the corporation's charter or articles of association, determining the time and place of holding and the manner of calling and of conducting meetings of its members and directors, the manner of electing its officers and directors, the mode of voting by proxy, and the number, qualifications, powers, duties and term of office of its officers and directors, and containing any other provisions, whether of the same or of a different nature, for the management of the corporation's property and the regulation and government of its affairs;
- (f) to make contracts, incur liabilities and borrow money.

Said corporation shall be entitled to take, hold, transmit and convey real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding in all one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000); provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply to corporations organized for the purposes of fostering, encouraging and assisting the physical location, settlement or resettlement of industrial and manufacturing enterprises within the state, and to whose members no profit shall ensue. If any corporation subject to the foregoing limitation desires to take and hold property to an amount exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) either originally or by amendment, such privilege shall be granted only by the general assembly on petition thereto
