(c) At least 30 days prior to the date fixed for any redemption of Series C Preferred Stock (hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Date"), written notice shall be mailed, by first class or registered mail, postage prepaid, to each holder of record of Series C Preferred Stock to be redeemed, at his or its address last shown on the records of the transfer agent of the Series C Preferred Stock (or the records of the Corporation, if it serves as its own transfer agent), notifying such holder of the election of the Corporation to redeem such shares, specifying the Redemption Date and calling upon such holder to surrender to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated, his or its certificate or certificates representing the shares to be redeemed (such notice is hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Notice"). On or prior to the Redemption Date, each holder of Series C Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall surrender his or its certificate or certificates representing such shares to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated in the Redemption Notice, and thereupon the Redemption Price of such shares shall be payable to the order of the person whose name appears on such certificate or certificates as the owner thereof and each surrendered certificate shall be canceled. In the event less than all the shares represented by any such certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed shares. From and after the Redemption Date, unless there shall have been a default in payment of the Redemption Price, all rights of the holders of the Series C Preferred Stock designated for redemption in the Redemption Notice as holders of Series C Preferred Stock of the Corporation (except the right to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of their certificate or certificates) shall cease with respect to such shares, and such shares shall not thereafter be transferred on the books of the Corporation or be deemed to be outstanding for any purpose whatsoever.

(d) Subject to the provisions hereof, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have authority to prescribe the manner in which Series C Preferred Stock shall be redeemed from

The right to such dividends shall not be cumulative, and no right shall accrue to the holders of Series D Preferred Stock by reason of the fact that dividends on such shares are not declared or paid in any prior year.

2. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up.

(a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Series D Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders (i) after the payment upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding up to the 4% Preferred Stock and the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock and after the payment of an aggregate of $1,666,750 to the holders of the Common Stock, (ii) on a pari passu basis with the holders of the Series F Preferred Stock and the Series G Preferred Stock, and (iii) prior to any other payment to the holders of Common Stock or any other class or series of stock ranking on liquidation junior to the Series D Preferred Stock (such Common Stock and other stock being collectively referred to as "Junior Stock") by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to $100.00 per share (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares). If upon any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation the remaining assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders shall be insufficient to pay the holders of shares of Series D Preferred Stock the full amount to which they shall be entitled, the holders of shares of Series D Preferred Stock and any class or series of stock ranking on liquidation on a parity with the Series D Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any distribution of the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

(b) After the payment of all preferential amounts required to be paid to the holders of Series D Preferred Stock and any other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking on liquidation on a parity with or superior to the Series D Preferred Stock as set forth above, upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Junior Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to receive the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders.

3. Voting The holders of Series D Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters on which holders of Common Stock are entitled to vote, and each share of Series D Preferred Stock shall be entitled to such number of votes as is equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which such share is convertible after February 24, 1991. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Series D Preferred Stock, the Common Stock and all other voting stock of the Corporation shall vote together as a single class.

4. Redemption.

(a) On February 24, 1991, the Corporation shall become obligated to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock by paying the "Redemption Price" (as defined below) in cash for each outstanding share of Series D Preferred Stock; provided that if the net worth of the Corporation on February 24, 1991, after giving effect to such redemption, is less than $250,000, the obligation of the Corporation to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock shall be suspended until such date as the net worth of the Corporation, after giving effect to such redemption, is $250,000 or more.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, on the date on which either (i) the Corporation exercises its right of redemption under Section 5 of an Agreement dated July 27, 1987 among the Corporation and certain investors, or (ii) Alexander

Daunis exercises his purchase option under such Agreement, whichever occurs earlier, the Corporation shall become obligated to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock by paying the Redemption Price in cash for each outstanding share of Series D Preferred Stock.

(c) At any time and from time to time, the Corporation may, at the option of the Board of Directors, redeem some or all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock by paying the Redemption Price in cash for each share of Series D Preferred Stock being redeemed; provided that if the Corporation elects to redeem only a portion of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock, such redemption shall be done pro rata among the holders thereof based on the number of shares of Series D Preferred Stock held by each holder.

(d) The Redemption Price per share of Series D Preferred Stock shall be determined as follows:

(i) if the redemption occurs before February 24, 1991, the Redemption Price per share shall be computed by (i) multiplying $14,015 by the number of months which have elapsed since February 24, 1988, and (ii) dividing such product by 500;

(ii) if the redemption occurs on February 24, 1991, the Redemption Price per share shall be computed by dividing $504,545 by 500; and

(iii) if the redemption occurs after February 24, 1991, the Redemption Price per share shall be computed by dividing (i) the amount of $504,545, as increased, over the period from February 24, 1991 to the redemption date, at an annual compound rate of return equal to the rate of interest announced from time to time by Fleet National Bank at its "prime" lending rate, plus 1%, by (ii) 500.

(e) On the date on which the Corporation becomes obligated to redeem the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock, or on such other date as it elects to redeem some or all of the Series D Preferred Stock, it shall mail written notice, by first class or registered mail, postage prepaid, to each holder of record of Series D Preferred Stock to be redeemed, at his or its address last shown on the records of the Corporation, notifying such holder of the redemption, specifying the date for redemption, which date may not be less than 30 days nor more than 45 days from the date of the mailing of such notice (the "Redemption Date"), and calling upon such holder to surrender to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated, his or its certificate or certificates representing the shares to be redeemed (such notice is hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Notice"). On or prior to the Redemption Date, each holder of Series D Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall surrender his or its certificate or certificates representing such shares to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated in the Redemption Notice, and thereupon the Redemption Price of such shares shall be payable to the order of the person whose name appears on such certificate or certificates as the owner thereof and each surrendered certificate shall be canceled. In the event less than all the shares represented by any such certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed shares. From and after the Redemption Date, unless there shall have been a default in payment of the Redemption Price, all rights of the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock designated for redemption in the Redemption Notice as holders of Series D Preferred Stock of the Corporation (except the right to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of their certificate or certificates) shall cease with respect to such shares, and such shares shall not thereafter be transferred on the books of the Corporation or be deemed to be outstanding for any purpose whatsoever.

(f) Subject to the provisions hereof, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have authority to prescribe the manner in which Series D Preferred Stock shall be redeemed from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall prevent or restrict the purchase by the Corporation, from time to time either at public or private sale, of the whole or any part of the Series D Preferred Stock at such price or prices as the Corporation may determine, subject to the provisions of applicable law.

5. Conversion.

(a) At any time on or after February 25, 1991 and prior to the redemption of such stock, each holder of Series D Preferred Stock shall have the right to convert all (but not less than all) of his/her Series D Preferred Stock into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock as is determined by multiplying the number of shares of Series D Preferred Stock being converted by 1.452 (the "Conversion Ratio").

(b) In order for a holder of Series D Preferred Stock to convert shares of Series D Preferred Stock into shares of Common Stock, such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates for such shares of Series D Preferred Stock, at the principal office of the Corporation, together with written notice that such holder elects to convert the shares of the Series D Preferred Stock represented by such certificate or certificates. If required by the Corporation, certificates surrendered for conversion shall be endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by the registered holder or his or its attorney duly authorized in writing. The date of receipt of such certificates and notice by the Corporation shall be the conversion date ("Conversion Date"). The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after the Conversion Date, issue and deliver at such office to such holder of Series D Preferred Stock, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled.

(c) The Corporation shall at all times when the Series D Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued stock, for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the Series D Preferred Stock, such number of its duly authorized shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding Series D Preferred Stock.

(d) All shares of Series D Preferred Stock which shall have been surrendered for conversion as herein provided shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding and all rights with respect to such shares, including the rights, if any, to receive notices and to vote, shall immediately cease and terminate on the Conversion Date, except only the right of the holders thereof to receive shares of Common Stock in exchange therefor. Any shares of Series D Preferred Stock so converted shall be retired and canceled and shall not be reissued, and the Corporation may from time to time take such appropriate action as may be necessary to reduce the authorized Series D Preferred Stock accordingly.

(e) The Conversion Ratio shall be appropriately adjusted in the event of stock splits, stock dividends, combinations or other similar recapitalizations affecting the Common Stock or the Series D Preferred Stock.

6. SERIES E PREFERRED STOCK.

2. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up.

(a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Series E Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders (i) after the payment upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding up to the 4% Preferred Stock, the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, the Series C Preferred Stock and the Series D Preferred Stock, the Series F Preferred Stock, the Series G Preferred Stock and after the payment of an aggregate of $1,666,750 to the holders of the Common Stock and (ii) prior to any other payment to the holders of Common Stock or any other class or series of stock ranking on liquidation junior to the Series E Preferred Stock (such Common Stock and other stock being collectively referred to as "Junior Stock") by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to $1,000.00 per share (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares). If upon any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation the remaining assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders shall be insufficient to pay the holders of shares of Series E Preferred Stock the full amount to which they shall be entitled, the holders of shares of Series E Preferred Stock and any class or series of stock ranking on liquidation on a parity with the Series E Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any distribution of the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

(b) After the payment of all preferential amounts required to be paid to the holders of Series E Preferred Stock and any other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking on liquidation on a parity with or superior to the Series E Preferred Stock as set forth above, upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Junior Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to receive the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders.

3. Voting At no time shall the holders of Series E Preferred Stock be entitled to any voting rights.

4. Optional Redemption.

(a) At any time and from time to time the Corporation may, at the option of its Board of Directors, redeem the Series E Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, by paying $1,000.00 per share (subject to appropriate adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends, combinations or other similar recapitalizations affecting such shares) in cash for each share of Series E Preferred Stock then redeemed (hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Price").

(b) In the event of any redemption of only a part of the then outstanding Series E Preferred Stock, the Corporation shall effect such redemption pro rata among the holders thereof based on the number of shares of Series E Preferred Stock held by such holders on the date of the Redemption Notice (as defined below).

(c) At least 30 days prior to the date fixed for any redemption of Series E Preferred Stock (hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Date"), written notice shall be mailed, by first class or registered mail, postage prepaid, to each holder of record of Series E Preferred Stock to be redeemed, at his or its address last shown on the records of the transfer agent of the Series E Preferred Stock (or the records of the Corporation, if it serves as its own transfer agent), notifying such holder of the election of the Corporation to redeem such shares, specifying the Redemption Date and calling upon such holder to surrender to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated, his or its certificate or certificates representing the shares to be redeemed (such notice is hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Notice"). On or prior to the Redemption Date, each holder of Series E Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall surrender his or its certificate or certificates representing such shares to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated in the Redemption Notice, and thereupon the Redemption Price of such shares shall be payable to the order of the person whose name appears on such certificate or certificates as the owner thereof and each surrendered certificate shall be canceled. In the event less than all the shares represented by any such certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed shares. From and after the Redemption Date, unless there shall have been a default in payment of the Redemption Price, all rights of the holders of the Series E Preferred Stock designated for redemption in the Redemption Notice as holders of Series E Preferred Stock of the Corporation (except the right to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of their certificate or certificates) shall cease with respect to such shares, and such shares shall not thereafter be transferred on the books of the Corporation or be deemed to be outstanding for any purpose whatsoever.

(d) Subject to the provisions hereof, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have authority to prescribe the manner in which Series E Preferred Stock shall be redeemed from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall prevent or restrict the purchase by the Corporation, from time to time either at public or private sale, of the whole or any part of the Series E Preferred Stock at such price or prices as the Corporation may determine, subject to the provisions of applicable law.

7. SERIES F PREFERRED STOCK.

The Corporation shall be authorized to issue Eight Hundred (800) shares of Series F Preferred Stock, $100 par value per share (the "Series F Preferred Stock"), with the following rights, preferences, powers, privileges and restrictions, qualifications and limitations.

1. Dividends. The holders of the Series F Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, out of any funds legally available therefor, on a pari passu basis with the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock and the Series G Preferred Stock, dividends at the rate of ten percent (10.0%) of the par value per annum, and no more, payable in preference and priority (i) after the payment of cash dividends payable to the 4% Preferred Stock and the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, and, at the option of the Board of Directors, the Common Stock and (ii) prior to any payment of any cash dividend on any other shares of capital stock of this Corporation other than the 4% Preferred Stock, the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, the Common Stock, the Series D Preferred Stock, and the Series G Preferred Stock, when and as declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to such dividends shall not be cumulative, and no right shall accrue to the holders of Series F Preferred Stock by reason of the fact that dividends on such shares are not declared or paid in any prior year.

2. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up.

(a) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Series F Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders (i) after the payment upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding up to the 4% Preferred Stock and the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock and after the payment of an aggregate of $1,666,750 to the holders of the Common Stock, (ii) on a pari passu basis with the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock and the Series G Preferred Stock, and (iii) prior to any other payment to the holders of Common Stock or any other class or series of stock ranking on liquidation junior to the Series F Preferred Stock (such Common Stock and other stock being collectively referred to as "Junior Stock") by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to $100.00 per share (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization affecting such shares). If upon any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation the remaining assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders shall be insufficient to pay the holders of shares of Series F Preferred Stock the full amount to which they shall be entitled, the holders of shares of Series F Preferred Stock and any class or series of stock ranking on liquidation on a parity with the Series F Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any distribution of the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

(b) After the payment of all preferential amounts required to be paid to the holders of Series F Preferred Stock and any other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking on liquidation on a parity with or superior to the Series F Preferred Stock as set forth above, upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Junior Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to receive the remaining assets and funds of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders.

3. Voting The holders of Series F Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters on which holders of Common Stock are entitled to vote, and each share of Series F Preferred Stock shall be entitled to such number of votes as is equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which such share is convertible after January 31, 1992. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Series F Preferred Stock, the Common Stock and all other voting stock of the Corporation shall vote together as a single class.

4. Redemption.

(a) On January 31, 1992, the Corporation shall become obligated to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series F

Preferred Stock by paying the "Redemption Price" (as defined below) in cash for each outstanding share of Series F Preferred Stock; provided that if the net worth of the Corporation on January 31, 1992, after giving effect to such redemption, is less than $250,000, the obligation of the Corporation to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall be suspended until such date as the net worth of the Corporation, after giving effect to such redemption, is $250,000 or more.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, on the date on which either (i) the Corporation exercises its right of redemption under Section 5 of an Agreement dated July 27, 1987 among the Corporation and certain investors, or (ii) Alexander Daunis exercises his purchase option under such Agreement, whichever occurs earlier, the Corporation shall become obligated to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock by paying the Redemption Price in cash for each outstanding share of Series F Preferred Stock.

(c) At any time and from time to time, the Corporation may, at the option of the Board of Directors, redeem some or all of the outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock by paying the Redemption Price in cash for each share of Series F Preferred Stock being redeemed; provided that if the Corporation elects to redeem only a portion of the outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock, such redemption shall be done pro rata among the holders thereof based on the number of shares of Series F Preferred Stock held by each holder.

(d) The Redemption Price per share of Series F Preferred Stock shall be determined as follows:

(i) if the redemption occurs before January 31, 1992, the Redemption Price per share shall be computed by multiplying $28.03 by the number of months which have elapsed since January 31, 1989;

(ii) if the redemption occurs on January 31, 1992, the Redemption Price per share shall be $1,009.09; and

(iii) if the redemption occurs after January 31, 1992, the Redemption Price per share shall be $1,009.09, as increased, over the period from January 31, 1992 to the redemption date, at an annual compound rate of return equal to the rate of interest announced from time to time by Fleet National Bank at its "prime" lending rate, plus 1%.

(e) On the date on which the Corporation becomes obligated to redeem the outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock, or on such other date as it elects to redeem some or all of the Series F Preferred Stock, it shall mail written notice, by first class or registered mail, postage prepaid, to each holder of record of Series F Preferred Stock to be redeemed, at his or its address last shown on the records of the Corporation, notifying such holder of the redemption, specifying the date for redemption, which date may not be less than 30 days nor more than 45 days from the date of the mailing of such notice (the "Redemption Date"), and calling upon such holder to surrender to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated, his or its certificate or certificates representing the shares to be redeemed (such notice is hereinafter referred to as the "Redemption Notice"). On or prior to the Redemption Date, each holder of Series F Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall surrender his or its certificate or certificates representing such shares to the Corporation, in the manner and at the place designated in the Redemption Notice, and thereupon the Redemption Price of such shares shall be payable to the order of the person whose name appears on such certificate or certificates as the owner thereof and each surrendered certificate shall be canceled. In the event less than all the shares represented by any such certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed shares. From and after the Redemption Date, unless there shall have been a default in payment of the Redemption Price, all rights of the holders of the Series F Preferred Stock designated for redemption in the Redemption Notice as holders of Series F Preferred Stock of the Corporation (except the right to receive the Redemption Price without interest upon surrender of their certificate or certificates) shall cease with respect to such shares, and such shares shall not thereafter be transferred on the books of the Corporation or be deemed to be outstanding for any purpose whatsoever.

(f) Subject to the provisions hereof, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have authority to prescribe the manner in which Series F Preferred Stock shall be redeemed from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall prevent or restrict the purchase by the Corporation, from time to time either at public or private sale, of the whole or any part of the Series F Preferred Stock at such price or prices as the Corporation may determine, subject to the provisions of applicable law.

5. Conversion.

(a) At any time on or after February 1, 1992 and prior to the redemption of such stock, each holder of Series F Preferred Stock shall have the right to convert all (but not less than all) of his/her Series F Preferred Stock into such number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock as is determined by multiplying the number of shares of Series F Preferred Stock being converted by 1.452 (the "Conversion Ratio").

(b) In order for a holder of Series F Preferred Stock to convert shares of Series F Preferred Stock into shares of Common Stock, such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates for such shares of Series F Preferred Stock, at the principal office of the Corporation, together with written notice that such holder elects to convert the shares of the Series F Preferred Stock represented by such certificate or certificates. If required by the Corporation, certificates surrendered for conversion shall be endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by the registered holder or his or its attorney duly authorized in writing. The date of receipt of such certificates and notice by the Corporation shall be the conversion date ("Conversion Date"). The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable after the Conversion Date, issue and deliver at such office to such holder of Series F Preferred Stock, a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of Common Stock to which such holder shall be entitled.

(c) The Corporation shall at all times when the Series F Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued stock, for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the Series F Preferred Stock, such number of its duly authorized shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding Series F Preferred Stock.

(d) All shares of Series F Preferred Stock which shall have been surrendered for conversion as herein provided shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding and all rights with respect to such shares, including the rights, if any, to receive notices and to vote, shall immediately cease and terminate on the Conversion Date, except only the right of the holders thereof to receive shares of Common Stock in exchange therefor. Any shares of Series F Preferred Stock so converted shall be retired and canceled and shall not be reissued, and the Corporation may from time to time take such appropriate action as may be necessary to reduce the authorized Series F Preferred Stock accordingly.

(e) The Conversion Ratio shall be appropriately adjusted in the event of stock splits, stock dividends, combinations or other similar recapitalizations affecting the Common Stock or the Series F Preferred Stock.
