Re: Non-Profit Corporation Annual Report Return
"A brief statement of the character of the affairs which the corporations is actually conducting in Rhode Island"

Greeting:

Gloria Dei Lutheran Church has, since its founding in 1890 in the City of Providence, existed to provide a setting and a framework for those wishing to worship God in the Lutheran tradition. In order to satisfy that goal the Church conducts a Sunday worship service of Word and Sacrament, as well as a Sunday School, providing youth and adult religious education, a youth activities program, a program of urban ministry to recent immigrants who speak Spanish as a mother tongue, a Lutheran summer day camp, and a Tuesday evening confirmation program. In addition to the foregoing, occasional service of Lutheran religious import, including Marriages, Christian Funeral services and the Sacrament of Baptism are performed in the Church.

All of the above activities are conducted on the Church property at 15 Hays St, in the City of Providence. The Church building is sometimes used by other non-profits such as Alcoholics Anonymous, or other religious groups, as the Congregation of the Church deems fitting.

Regards,

Richard W Johnson
Secretary of the Congregation
