1. Elimination of Stockholders Liability

A stockholder of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of the stockholder's duty insofar as the stockholder exercises the powers normally vested in the board of directors as permitted by Section 51 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, except for (i) liability for any breach of the stockholder's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) liability for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) liability imposed pursuant to the provisions of Section 43 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, as amended, or (iv) liability for any transaction from which the stockholder derived an improper personal benefit (unless said transaction is permitted by Section 37.1 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, as amended). If the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a stockholder of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act. Any repeal or modification of this ARTICLE SIXTH by the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a stockholder of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

2. Indemnification of Stockholders and Officers

(a) By-law and Stockholder and Officer Indemnity Agreements: Statutory Provisions. The stockholders of the Corporation may include provisions in the Corporation bylaws, or may authorize agreements to be entered into with each stockholder and officer for the purpose of indemnifying him or her in the manner and to the extent permitted by Section 4.1 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, as amended.

(v) The by-law provisions or agreements authorized hereby may not indemnify a stockholder or officer from and against any Loss, and the Corporation shall not reimburse for any Expenses, in connection with any claim or claims made against a stockholder or officer: (1) for any breach of the stockholder's or officer's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders; (2) for

No holder of any of the common stock of the Corporation (whether or not there shall be more than one series of common stock) shall transfer any of such stock without first offering the same to the Corporation at the lowest price at which (s)he is willing to dispose of the same, said offer to be in writing and to include a true statement of the names and addresses of the transferee or transferees to whom said stockholder intends to transfer his or her stock if the said offer is not accepted by the Corporation as hereinafter provided. Said offer and statement shall be addressed and delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, or in case the stockholder making such offer shall be the Secretary then to the President; and the Secretary or the President, as the case may be, shall thereupon call or cause to be called a special meeting of the holders of the stock of the Corporation then outstanding and entitled to vote, to be held within thirty (30) days after the receipt of said offer, for the purposes of taking action with respect to the same. The Corporation by unanimous resolution of the holders of its stock then outstanding and entitled to vote adopted at a meeting of stockholders duly held for that purpose may waive the provisions of this article with respect to any particular transfer. Each common stock certificate issued by the Corporation shall be marked with a legend referring to this restriction on transfer.
