EXHIBIT "A"

The corporation shall have the right in case any Stockholder desires to sell any stock of the corporation to purchase said stock at the lowest price and upon the most lenient terms at which such Stockholder is willing to sell the same before such stock may be sold to any other party. No sale of any stock to any party other than the corporation shall be valid unless such stock shall have first been so offered in writing to the corporation and unless such offer shall have been rejected or shall not have been acted upon by the corporation within thirty (30) days after such offer is made. The Directors shall have the power to accept or reject such offer on behalf of the corporation. Any Stockholder who shall have offered his stock for sale to the corporation in accordance with the foregoing provisions, may at any time within sixty (60) days after the rejection of such offer by the corporation, or if the corporation shall neither accept nor reject such offer, then within ninety (90) days after such offer shall have been made to the corporation, sell the stock so offered to the corporation to any other party but not for a price lower nor upon more lenient terms than at which such stock shall have been previously offered to the corporation. The corporation may require affidavits and other evidence, documentary or otherwise, to its satisfaction, from the Stockholder and purchaser of such stock as to the price paid therefore before transferring such stock upon the books of the corporation. The Directors may, in particular instances, consent to any such proposed sale, but no such consent or waiver shall extend to other or subsequent instances.

Re: ID 129933
ALPHA ASSOCIATES, LTD.

Dear Mr. Mosca:

On February 11, 2003, this office accepted for filing Articles of Incorporation for the above-named corporation. It has come to our attention that the corporate existence date of April 1, 2003, extends the 30-day provision. Pursuant to Section 7-1.1-50 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended, the date of corporate existence may be the date of filing or upon such later date, not more than 30-days after the filing of the articles of incorporation.

Therefore, for purposes of our records, the filing date of the Articles of Incorporation, February 11, 2003, has been deemed to be the corporate existence date. Please attach this letter to the duplicate original copy of the Articles of Incorporation.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
