MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the International Institute of Rhode Island is to enable immigrants and refugees in Southeastern New England to become self-reliant, productive members of our society and to participate fully in social, cultural, economic, educational and civic opportunities open to all Americans.

The agency is dedicated to achieve this goal in a manner that respects the cultural heritage and traditions that newcomers bring to the United States.

The Institute is also dedicated to improved understanding among the many diverse ethnic and nationality groups living here.
