BUSINESS CORPORATION

ORIGINAL ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The undersigned acting as incorporator(s) of a corporation under Chapter 7-1.1 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended, adopt(s) the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

FIRST. The name of the corporation is New England In Touch, Inc.

(A close corporation pursuant to §7-1.1-51 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended) (strike if inapplicable)

SECOND. The period of its duration is (if perpetual, so state) perpetual THIRD. The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

For the purpose of accepting, receiving and conveying messages and information and to convey said messages to the indicated client and for any or all other purposes not contrary to the laws of the State of Rhode Island.

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is:

(a) If only one class: Total number of shares 500 no par value

(If the authorized shares are to consist of one class only, state the par value of such shares or a statement that all of such shares are to be without par value.)

or

(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares .....

(State (A) the number of shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

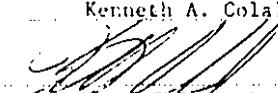

The corporation shall have the right, in case of a sale of any stock by a stockholder, to purchase said stock at the lowest price at which such stockholder is willing to sell the same before such stock may be sold to any other party; and no sale of any stock to any party other than the corporation shall be valid unless the offer to sell such stock at the lowest price at which the holder thereof is willing to sell, shall have first been received in writing by the corporation. The corporation shall have thirty (30) days from the receipt of said offer in which to accept or reject said offer. A majority of the stockholders present at the meeting at which said offer is made, although said majority may not be a quorum, shall have the power to accept or reject such offer on behalf of the corporation.

Any stockholder who shall have offered his stock for sale to the corporation in accordance with the foregoing provisions may, at any time within (30) days after the rejection of such offer by the corporation, or if the corporation shall neither accept nor reject such offer, then within sixty (60) days after the offer shall have been received by the corporation, sell the stock so offered to the corporation to any other party, but not for a price lower than that at which such stock shall have been previously offered to the corporation, and the corporation may require affidavits from the stockholder and the purchasers of such stock as to the price paid therefore, before transferring such stock upon the books of the corporation.
