RHODE ISLAND PODIATRIC MEDICAL SOCIETY ("the Corporation") is a non-profit corporation organized exclusively for the purpose of promoting the art and science of podiatric medicine and surgery among and on behalf of doctors of podiatric medicine licensed in the State of Rhode Island, among persons interested in the betterment of public health, and among persons who have made outstanding contributions to the advancement of the art and science of podiatric medicine and surgery. The Corporation is organized to promote common business interests among licensed doctors of podiatric medicine and those intending to become licensed to practice podiatric medicine and surgery in the State of Rhode Island and as such is a business league within the meaning of section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it may be amended from time to time (the "Code") and regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation does not offer services for profit and will not privately benefit its members or non-members; it does not render particular services to its members; and it will not engage in business activities of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit. The Corporation's primary activity is the furtherance of the collective professional interests of its members.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, the Corporation is organized exclusively for the purposes authorized within section 501(c)(6) of the Code and shall not carry on any activities not permitted by a corporation exempt from federal income taxation under that section of the Code.

THIRD:

RHODE ISLAND PODIATRIC MEDICAL SOCIETY ("the Corporation") is a non-profit corporation organized exclusively for the purpose of promoting the art and science of podiatric medicine and surgery among and on behalf of doctors of podiatric medicine licensed in the State of Rhode Island, among persons interested in the betterment of public health, and among persons who have made outstanding contributions to the advancement of the art and science of podiatric medicine and surgery. The Corporation is organized to promote common business interests among licensed doctors of podiatric medicine and those intending to become licensed to practice podiatric medicine and surgery in the State of Rhode Island and as such is a business league within the meaning of section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it may be amended from time to time (the "Code") and regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation does not offer services for profit and will not privately benefit its members or non-members; it does not render particular services to its members; and it will not engage in business activities of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit. The Corporation's primary activity is the furtherance of the collective professional interests of its members.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, the Corporation is organized exclusively for the purposes authorized within section 501(c)(6) of the Code and shall not carry on any activities not permitted by a corporation exempt from federal income taxation under that section of the Code.
