EXHIBIT A

THIRD: The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

(a) to promote and develop a positive exchange of ideas and experiences regarding the provision of a safe working environment in the community, through training sessions, discussions, plant tours and publications addressing specific areas of concern, and other means.

(b) to do any and all things necessary, suitable or proper for the attainment of any and all of the foregoing purposes, and, subject to the limitations hereinafter contained, to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a non-profit corporation may be organized under Chapter 7-6 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1955, as amended, or the corresponding provisions of any future statute enacted in substitute therefor.

(c) the purposes for which this Corporation is formed are to operate exclusively for such purposes as will not disqualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, and notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under said Section.
