ARTICLE SIXTH

1. The shareholders shall not dispose of all or any part of their stock of the corporation, now owned or hereafter acquired by them, without first giving to the other shareholders and the corporation at least thirty (30) days written notice by certified mail of their intention to sell or dispose of stock. The notice shall contain the price at which the shareholder is willing to dispose of the stock, the name and address of the person to whom the shareholder intends to transfer the stock if the offer is not accepted by the corporation or other shareholders. Within the thirty (30) day period, a special meeting of the shareholders shall be called by the corporation. At such meeting all the stock of the shareholder desiring to make any such disposition shall be offered for sale and shall be subject to an option to purchase on the part of the corporation, which option shall be exercised, if at all, at the time of such meeting. The shareholder offering the stock shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting called for the purpose of considering such offer. The purchase price by the corporation shall be at the lowest price at which the offering shareholder is willing to dispose of their stock, and such purchase price shall be payable in cash or by certified or bank check within sixty (60) days of the exercise of the option.

2. If all the stock of the offering shareholder is not purchased by the corporation in accordance with the provisions of Section 1. of this Article Sixth, then the stock not so purchased shall be offered for sale and shall be subject to an option to purchase on the part of the other shareholders, such option shall be exercised, if at all, at the time of the meeting of shareholders called pursuant to the provisions of Section 1. The purchase price and the payment of the purchase price shall be as provided in Section 1.

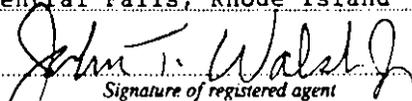

3. If all the stock of the offering shareholder is not purchased by the corporation or the other shareholders or by both in accordance with the provisions in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article Sixth, then all restrictions imposed on the transfer of such stock by this agreement shall forthwith terminate, provided, however, that if the offering shareholder does not dispose of their stock in accordance with the notice given to the corporation and shareholders within six (6) months after the shareholders' meeting held to consider the shareholder's offer, the offering shareholder must again comply with the provision of this Article Sixth for any subsequent sale.

4. The corporation and shareholders shall have preemptive rights to nullify any and all transfers of shares of stock of the corporation not made in accordance with this Article Sixth.
