Dear Mr. Hall:

Enclosed you will find the following items being returned:
1989 & 1990 annual reports along with check #1406 for $10.00.
We cannot accept your 1990 annual report since your corporation did not file 1987 annual report.

Originally your 1988 was credit to 1987 and your 1989 was credit to 1988. So you're still a year behind on your annual report!

Please note that as of 09/01/90 filing fees have increased.

Annual Report (non-profit)	$20.00ea
----------------------------	-----------

I've enclosed additional annual report for 1987. Please resubmit all forms along with a check for $40.00 by September 28, 1990.

Sincerely

Carol Zurzybida

Dear Secretary:

Enclosed you will find the following documents:

1. 1989 Form # N-13 (This being a copy as your office has been successful in losing the original.) with attached copies of the check which paid the fee for the Year 1989.
2. 1990 Form #N-13, with attached check for which to pay the fee. This check is for the Year 1990.

I do not want and do not expect to have any of the above listed paperwork or checks returned to me. The only exception being the cancelled 1990 check in next month's bank statement. I hope I have made myself perfectly clear.

Respectfully,

Herbert A. Hall, III

Treasurer
