EXHIBIT A

I. Article Fifth

Article Fifth of the Articles of Incorporation is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

Fifth. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive rights of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

Shareholders shall have no preemptive rights.

II. Article Sixth

Article Sixth of the Articles of Incorporation is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

Sixth. Provisions (if any) for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation:

1. The corporation may, from time to time, and in conformity with the provisions of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, distribute to its shareholders, directly or by the purchase of its own shares, a portion of its assets, in cash or property, out of the unreserved and unrestricted capital surplus of the corporation.

2. Except for those actions excluded by Section 7-1.1-30.3(b) of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting upon the written consent of less than all the shareholders entitled to vote thereon if the shareholders who so consent would be entitled to cast at least the minimum number of votes which would be required to take such action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote thereon were present. In the event of such written action, prompt notice of such action shall be given to all shareholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if such meeting were held.

3. No director shall have personal liability to the corporation or to its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of such director's duty as a director provided that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of such director: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or to its shareholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 7-1.1-43 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit (unless such transaction is permitted by Section 7-1.1-37.1 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act).

4. The corporation may provide, either in the corporation's bylaws or by contract, for the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents, by whomever elected or appointed, to the full extent presently permitted by law; provided, however, that if the applicable law is hereafter modified to permit indemnification in situations where it was not theretofor permitted, then such indemnifications may be permitted to the full extent permitted by such law as amended.
