EXHIBIT A

Any shareholder, including the heirs, assigns, executors or administrators of a deceased shareholder, desiring to sell or transfer such shares owned by him or them, shall first offer it to the corporation in the manner following:

He shall notify the corporation of his desire to sell or transfer by notice in writing, which notice shall contain the price at which he is willing to sell or transfer. The corporation shall within thirty (30) days thereafter either accept or reject the offer, but if at the expiration of thirty (30) days the corporation shall not have exercised the right to purchase, the owner of such shares shall be at liberty to dispose of the same at a price not less than that offered to the corporation. No shares of stock shall be sold or transferred on the books of the corporation until these provisions have been complied with, but the shareholders may in any particular instance waive this requirement.

All unissued or treasury shares or securities convertible into shares shall first be offered to the shareholders by the corporation in the manner above provided.
