- (m) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes.
- (n) To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of governmental authority.
- (o) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees.
- (p) To provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officers, or employees, or on the life of any stockholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by such stockholder.
- (q) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, enterprise or venture.
- (r) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is: 1,000 no par

(a) If only one class: Total number of shares.

(If the authorized shares are to consist of one class only, state the par value of such shares or a statement that all of such shares are to be without par value.)

or

(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares.

(State (A) the number of shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

No stockholder of the corporation shall sell any stock of the corporation held by him without first giving written notice to the corporation of his intention to sell the same and giving the corporation the right to purchase said stock at the lowest price he is willing to sell before the same shall be sold by him to any other party. The corporation shall exercise the right to purchase the stock so offered to it within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of said offer, and if not accepted within said time the stockholder shall be at liberty to make sale of the stock so offered to the corporation in open market but for not less than the price named by him in the offer to the corporation. By unanimous consent of the stockholders present at any meeting the holder of stock may be authorized and permitted to transfer the same to any other person or persons and such authorization shall be considered a waiver by the corporation of its right to have the stock offered to it first before offering the same for sale to any other person.
