REC-OF STATE

AUG 29 1973

No stockholder shall sell or dispose of any of his shares of the common stock of the corporation without first offering the same to the corporation in writing for a period of fifteen (15) days at the lowest price at which he is willing to sell; and if the corporation shall not, within fifteen (15) days after receiving from such stockholder such written notice, tender to the stockholder the purchase price of such stock, the stockholder shall be at liberty to sell such stock within a further period of fifteen (15) days to any other person at a price not less than the price offered to the corporation. This provision shall be binding upon each stockholder, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns. The right of a stockholder to transfer any of his shares to a pledgee as collateral security shall not be restricted, but the provisions of this paragraph shall apply to any transfer or sale by the pledgee in satisfaction of the pledge.

Any dividend declared on any stock of the company outstanding at any time which shall remain unclaimed or uncollected for a period of two years from the date it is declared may by vote of the Board of Directors (or if there be none, the stockholders) be reclaimed for the use and benefit of the corporation without further liability therefor to the holder of record, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns.
