Section 5 - Restrictions on Transfer:

So long as there shall be more than one holder of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation, no holder of any of the capital stock shall transfer any of such stock without first offering the same to the Corporation at the lowest price at which he is willing to dispose of the same, said offer to be in writing and to include a true statement of the names and addresses of the transferee or transferees to whom said Shareholder intends to transfer his stock if his said offer is not accepted by the Corporation as hereinafter provided. Said offer and statement shall be addressed and delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation, or in case the Shareholder making such offer be the Secretary, then to the President. The Secretary or the President, as the case may be, shall thereupon call or cause to be called a special meeting of the holders of the stock of the Corporation then outstanding, to be held within ten (10) days after the receipt of said offer, for the purpose of taking action with respect to the same. The Corporation, through the holders of the stock then outstanding, shall have thirty (30) days after the receipt of said offer to accept or reject said offer, and until action thereon shall be taken or until the expiration of said thirty (30) days, whichever shall first occur no transfer of any of his capital stock shall be made by the Shareholders submitting the offer, but if the Shareholders shall reject said offer or if no action shall be taken by them prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) days, such Shareholder may then transfer the same at not less than said price to any transferee or transferees described in said statement. At any such meeting, the shares of stock held by the Shareholder submitting said offer shall not be counted as outstanding for the purpose of determining what shall constitute a quorum and a vote and the Shareholder so submitting said offer shall not be entitled to vote at said meeting.

All transfers of capital stock are intended to be included in the prohibitions of this Article, including, but not limited to a transfer by virtue of the death of a shareholder, or the pledge, attachment, or other encumbrance of such capital stock. This provision shall be binding upon any executor, administrator or other legal representative or every shareholder, in the case of sale or pledging of any share or shares of stock by such executors, pledging of any share or shares of stock by such executors, administrators, or other legal representatives of any shareholder and the provisions contained in this by-law shall be embodied in, written, printed or stamped upon each certificate of stock already issued or which hereafter may be issued, and thereupon shall be binding upon each and every present or future owner or holder thereof, whether such stock be acquired by will or otherwise. Any transfer contrary to the foregoing provisions shall be void. The Corporation, by vote of the holders of a two-thirds majority of the shares of the capital stock then outstanding, may waive the provisions of this Article with respect to any particular transfer, but the stock with reference to which said provisions are waived shall not be counted as outstanding for the purpose of determining what shall constitute a quorum and a majority vote and the holder of said stock shall not be entitled to vote at said meeting.
