EXHIBIT A

The board of directors, acting without the shareholders, may (a) reclassify any unissued shares of any authorized class or series into one or more existing or new classes or series, and (b) create one or more new classes or series of shares, specifying the number of shares to be included therein, the distinguishing designation thereof and the preferences, limitations and relative rights applicable thereto, provided that the board of directors may not approve an aggregate number of authorized shares of all classes and series which exceeds the total number of authorized shares specified in the Articles of Incorporation approved by the shareholders.

EXHIBIT B

1. No director shall have personal liability to the corporation or to its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of such director's duty as a director provided that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of such director: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or to its shareholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 7-1.2-811 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit (unless such transaction is permitted by Section 7-1.2-807 of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act).

2. The corporation may provide, either in the corporation's bylaws or by contract, for the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents, by whomever elected or appointed, to the full extent presently permitted by law; provided, however, that if the applicable law is hereafter modified to permit indemnification in situations where it was not theretofor permitted, then such indemnifications may be permitted to the full extent permitted by such law as amended.

3. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting if all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action consent to the action in writing.

4. The stock of the corporation is subject to transfer restrictions contained in its bylaws and copies thereof are on file at the registered office of the corporation. Certificates of stock of the corporation are transferable only upon compliance with the provisions of said transfer restrictions.
