EXHIBIT A

Art. 3:

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, specifically to promote amateur athletics in the Town of Barrington, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The corporation may receive and administer funds for the aforementioned purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to that end, the corporation is empowered to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property and to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or income in such manner as, in the judgment of the directors, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, to do any other acts or things incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof. The Corporation shall not lend any of its assets to any officer or director of this Corporation, nor guarantee to any person the payment of a loan by an officer or director of this Corporation. No member, officer or director of this Corporation shall be held personally liable for the debts or obligations of the Corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the members, officers, or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this Corporation.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any member, director, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes as set forth herein. The directors and officers of the Corporation shall receive no compensation for their services to the Corporation other than reasonable expenses. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publication or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this Corporation.

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all debts, obligations, liabilities, costs and expenses of the Corporation, distribute the remaining assets of the Corporation exclusively to one or more charitable or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be deposited in the Registry of the Rhode Island Superior Court for Providence County, for the Court's determination of which organizations that qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations shall receive the remainder of the Corporation's assets.
