- (p) To provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officers, or employees, or on the life of any stockholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by such stockholder.
- (q) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, enterprise or venture.
- (r) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

FOURTH. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is:

(a) If only one class: Total number of shares . . . 600

(If the authorized shares are to consist of one class only, state the par value of such shares or a statement that all of such shares are to be without par value.)

All without par value

OR

(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares

(State (A) the number of shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

Fifth A. Shareholders shall have the preemptive rights as provided in §7-1.1-24 of the Rhode Island General Laws.

Fifth B. No stockholder shall transfer any of his capital stock without par value, except by will or intestacy, without first offering the same to the corporation at the lowest price at which he is willing to sell the same, said offer to be in writing and to include a statement of the names and addresses of the transferee or transferees to whom the stockholder intends to sell and transfer his stock if his said offer is not accepted by the corporation as hereinafter provided. Said offer and statement shall be addressed to the corporation at its principal place of business. The corporation through its Directors shall have sixty (60) days after action thereon shall be taken or until the expiration of said sixty (60) days, whichever shall first occur, no transfer of such stock shall be made by the stockholder submitting the offer, but if the Directors shall reject said offer or if no action shall be taken by them prior to the expiration of said sixty (60) days, such stockholder may then sell said stock at not less than the price fixed in said offer to any transferee or transferees described in said statement at any time within three (3) months after the expiration of said sixty (60) days, but not otherwise or thereafter without again complying with the provisions of the paragraph herein. Transfers by way of pledge, attachment or other encumbrances are intended to be included in the prohibitions of the paragraph herein. Any transfer contrary to the foregoing provisions shall be void. The corporation by resolution of its stockholders, however, may waive the foregoing provisions with respect to any particular transfer.
