By:

Manuel Andrade, President

No stockholder shall transfer any of his or her capital stock without par value, except by will or intestacy without first offering the same to the Corporation at the lowest price he or she is willing to sell the same, said offer to be in writing and to include at which a statement of the names and addresses of the transferee or transferees to whom the stockholder intends to sell and transfer his stock if his or her said offer is not accepted by the Corporation as hereinafter provided. Said offer and statement shall be addressed to the Corporation at its principal place of business. The Corporation through its stockholders shall have fifteen (15) days after the date of the delivery of said offer and statement to accept or reject said offer and until action thereon shall be taken or until the expiration of said fifteen (15) days, whichever shall first occur, no transfer of such stock shall be made by the stockholder submitting the offer, but if the Corporation shall reject said offer or if no action shall be taken by the Corporation prior to the expiration of said fifteen (15) days, such stockholder may then sell said stock at not less than the price fixed in said offer to any transferee or transferees described in said statement at any time within three (3) months after the expiration of said fifteen (15) days, but not otherwise or thereafter without again complying with the provisions of the paragraph herein. Transfers by way of pledge, attachment or other encumbrances are intended to be included in the prohibitions of the paragraphs herein. Any transfer contrary to the foregoing provisions shall be void. The Corporation by resolution of its stockholders may waive the foregoing provisions with respect to any particular transfer. The Corporation shall comply with Section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code.
