EXHIBIT A

In case a stockholder desires to sell his shares of stock, he must first offer them for sale to the remaining stockholder(s), it being the intention hereof to give them a preference in the purchase of said stock, and any attempted sale in violation of this provision is null and void.

A stockholder desiring to sell his stock shall file notice in writing of his intention with the Secretary of the corporation, stating the terms of sale, and unless his terms are accepted by any or all of the stockholders within twenty-one (21) days thereafter, they shall be deemed to have waived their privileges of purchasing and the selling stockholder shall be at liberty to sell to anyone else. A change in the terms of the proposed sale shall be required by the filing of a new notice with the Secretary of the Corporation.

Pursuant to §7-1.1-30.3 of the General Laws of Rhode Island (1956) as amended, action by shareholders without a meeting is authorized.
