(NON-BUSINESS CORPORATION)

Know all Men by these Presents, That we

John D. Florio, Sr.

Valerie F. Pinelli

Vera A. Patterson

Diane F. Penza

Alexander DeFrance

all of lawful age, hereby agree to and with each other:

FIRST. To associate ourselves together with the intention of forming a corporation under and by virtue of the powers conferred by Chapter 7-6 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended.

SECOND. Said corporation shall be known by the name of.....
The Impossible Dream, Inc.

THIRD. Said corporation is constituted for the purpose of the purposes within.....
The meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and in this connection to alleviate human suffering and distress; to better and improve mankind; to establish a center or centers for said service; and to take and hold property for the applications thereof to the foregoing purposes.
To do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purpose or in the advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit or financial gain of its directors or officers. The corporation shall not discriminate on the basis of race, religion or creed. Notwithstanding any other provision of this certification, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities

In addition to the foregoing, said corporation shall have the following powers and authority, viz:—(See §§ 7-6-7, 7-6-7.1 and 7-6-8 of the General Laws.)

To do any lawful act which is necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of its incorporation. Without limiting or enlarging the effect of this general grant of authority, it is hereby specifically provided that every such corporation shall have power

- (a) to have perpetual succession in its corporate name unless a period for its duration is limited in its articles of association or charter.
- (b) to sue and be sued in its corporate name.
- (c) to have and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure.
- (d) to elect such officers and appoint such agents as its purposes require, and to fix their compensation and define their duties.
- (e) to make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this state, or with the corporation's charter or articles of association, determining the time and place of holding and the manner of calling and conducting meetings of its members and directors, the manner of electing its officers and directors, the mode of voting by proxy, and the number, qualifications, powers, duties and term of office of its officers and directors, and containing any other provisions, whether of the same or of a different nature, for the management of the corporation's property and the regulation and government of its affairs;
- (f) to make contracts, incur liabilities and borrow money

Said corporation shall be entitled to take, hold, transmit and convey real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding in all one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply to certain corporations organized for the purposes enumerated in § 7-6-8. If any corporation subject to the foregoing limitation desires to take and hold property to an amount exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) either originally or by amendment, such privilege shall be granted only by the general assembly on petition thereto

(Over)

FOURTH. Said corporation shall be located in WARWICK, Rhode Island.
(City or Town)

(Further provisions not inconsistent with law)

FIFTH Principal Office

The principal office of the corporation shall be located at 202 Easton Avenue, Warwick, Rhode Island, and the agent for service of process shall be John Florio.

* SIXTH Distribution on Dissolution. In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the corporation shall, after necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to such organizations as shall qualify under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, subject to an order of the Rhode Island Superior Court. No part of the income of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes.

SEVENTH Prohibited Activities. No part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or to otherwise attempt to influence legislation or participating in, or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
