EXHIBIT A

FIFTH: Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

The sale or transfer of stock held by any shareholder shall be subject to the following provisions:

A shareholder desiring to dispose of, or transfer, his/her stock, as aforesaid, shall first offer such stock for sale to the corporation, at the lowest price at which he/she is willing to sell the same. If for any reason the corporation is unable to, or fails to purchase such stock, such stock shall be offered to the other shareholders of record in proportion to the number of shares they hold for a period of thirty (30) days, at a price no lower than that at which it was first offered to the corporation. If the remaining shareholders shall elect not to purchase said stock, the shareholder shall be at liberty to sell his/her stock to any other party at a price not less than the price at which it was first offered to the corporation and to the remaining shareholders. This Section shall also apply to gifts, sales or transfers by a stockholder to members of his/her immediate family.

SIXTH: Provisions (if any) for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation:

The said common stock without par value of this corporation may be issued for cash, personal, and real property, tangible or intangible property, or other consideration as may be fixed by a majority of the stockholders.
