ORIGINAL ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

(BUSINESS CORPORATION)

Know all Men by these Presents, That we E. FRANCES ARMSTRONG, of the City of Warwick, County of Kent, State of Rhode Island, JEAN E. BATES, of the City of Cranston, County of Providence, State of Rhode Island, and THOMAS S. HOGAN, of the Town of South Kingstown, County of Washington, State of Rhode Island all of lawful age, hereby agree to and with each other:

FIRST. To associate ourselves together with the intention of forming a corporation under and by virtue of the powers conferred by Chapters 7-1 to 7-5 (inclusive), 7-9 and 7-10 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, as amended.

SECOND. Said corporation shall be known by the name of

GEORGE'S GALILEE RESTAURANT, INC.

THIRD. Said corporation is formed (as permitted by § 7-2-3 of the General Laws) for the purpose of owning, conducting, operating, maintaining and carrying on a general restaurant and cafeteria business, including the buying, selling and otherwise dealing in gifts, notions and novelty items, at such place or places as may be determined upon by the Board of Directors and to carry on such business or businesses as may be convenient or necessary or incident to the foregoing, together with the right to engage in the buying, selling, leasing and holding of real estate as may be necessary or essential to the proper conduct of such business or businesses, and for the further purpose of carrying out the foregoing, the corporation may assume or may guarantee or may become security for the payment and performance of any and all debts and obligations of any other corporation or of any other person or others and may guarantee the payment of dividends upon any security or securities.

In addition to the foregoing, said corporation shall have the following powers and authority, viz:—(See § 7-2-10 of the General Laws.)

To do any lawful act which is necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of its incorporation. Without limiting or enlarging the effect of this general grant of authority, it is hereby specifically provided that every corporation shall have power:

- (a) to have perpetual succession in its corporate name, unless a period for its duration is limited in its articles of association or charter;
- (b) to sue and be sued in its corporate name;
- (c) to have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure;
- (d) to elect such officers and appoint such agents as its business requires, and to fix their compensation and define their duties;
- (e) to make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this state, or with the corporation's charter, or articles of association, determining the time and place of holding and the manner of calling and of conducting meetings of its stockholders and directors, the manner of electing its officers and directors, the mode of voting by proxy, the number, qualifications, powers, duties and term of office of its officers and directors, the number of directors and of shares of stock necessary to constitute a quorum, which number may be less than a majority, and the method of making demand for payment of subscriptions to its capital stock, and providing for an executive committee to be elected from and by the board of directors and defining its powers and duties, and containing any other provisions, whether of the same or of a different nature, for the management of the corporation's property and the regulation and government of its affairs;
- (f) to make contracts, incur liabilities and borrow money;
- (g) to acquire, hold, sell and transfer shares of its own capital stock; provided, that no corporation shall use its funds or property for the purchase of its own shares of capital stock when such use would cause any impairment of the capital of the corporation;
- (h) to acquire, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, any other corporation or corporations of this state or of any other state, country, nation or government, and while owner of said stock to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon;
- (i) to guarantee, if authorized so to do by its charter or articles of association, any bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness created by or dividends on or a certain amount per share in liquidation of the capital stock of any other corporation or corporations created by this state or by any other state, country, nation or government;
- (j) to acquire, hold, use, manage, convey, lease, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of within or without this state any other property, real or personal, which its purposes shall require;
- (k) to conduct business and have offices in this state and elsewhere; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall authorize any corporation to carry on the business of a bank, savings bank or trust company.

FOURTH. Said corporation shall be located in Narragansett, Rhode Island.
(City or Town)

FIFTH. The TOTAL amount of authorized capital stock of said corporation, with par value, shall be ($) dollars as follows, viz:
Common stock in the amount of ($) dollars to be divided into () shares of the par value of ($) dollars each; and Preferred stock in the amount of ($) dollars, to be divided into () shares, of the par value of ($) dollars each.

(Or if capital stock is without par value)

The TOTAL number of shares of capital stock authorized, without par value, shall be Five Hundred (500) shares as follows, viz:— Five Hundred (500) shares of Common stock, without par value; and () shares of Preferred stock, without par value.

(If capital stock is divided into two or more classes) Description of several classes of stock, including terms on which they are created, and voting rights of each, viz:—

SIXTH. (If not perpetual) The period of duration of said corporation shall ~~termin-~~ ~~ate~~ be perpetual.

(Further provisions not inconsistent with law)

SEVENTH: The corporation shall have the right to purchase its common stock at the lowest price at which the holder thereof is willing to sell the same before the same shall be sold to any other party and no sale or transfer of the common stock of the corporation to any party other than the corporation shall be valid nor shall any share of such stock be transferred on the books of the corporation to any party other than the corporation unless said stock shall have been first offered in writing to the corporation by the holder of record thereof for sale at a designated price, nor, such offer having been made, unless the corporation fail to accept said offer within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt thereof or ~~EXPIRE~~ prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) days shall give notice in writing to the holder of such stock that it does not desire to accept said offer, and no sale or transfer of the stock of the corporation at a price lower than that at which the same shall have been offered in writing to the corporation shall be valid or give any person the right to a transfer of the same on the books of the corporation.

EIGHTH: Common stock without par value may be issued from time to time for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

NINTH: The corporation shall have a lien on all shares of a stockholder for assessments due from the stockholder or for other indebtedness of the stockholder due to the corporation enforceable in such manner as the By-Laws of the corporation shall provide.
