ORIGINAL ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION
(NON-BUSINESS CORPORATION)

Know all Men by these Presents, That we, ALBERT E. DELBARONE, E. SPRAGUE LINNELL, THOMAS O. BRIERLY, JR., CHARLES M. STURDEVANT, PETER B. MCGUIRK, JR., FREDERICK A. RIEDEL, JR., NORMAN F. JORDAN, BERNARD T. SABETTA, JR., PAUL F. SULLIVAN, and ERNEST E. HANKE, all of lawful age, hereby agree to and with each other:

FIRST. To associate ourselves together with the intention of forming a corporation under and by virtue of the powers conferred by Chapter 7-6 of the General Laws of Rhode Island.

SECOND. Said corporation shall be known by the name of

BLUE WATER SPORTSMAN'S CLUB, INC.

THIRD. Said corporation is constituted for the purpose of fostering the protection, preservation and conservation of our natural resources and wild life, including animals, fish and birds of the game and insectivorous variety; the promotion of fish and game culture; to assist in the enforcement of fish, game and forestry laws; to procure the enactment of laws for preservation of fish, game and forest; and to advance the interest of hunters and fishermen throughout the State of Rhode Island and the United States of America.

In addition to the foregoing, said corporation shall have the following powers and authority, viz:— (See §§ 7-6-7, 7-6-8 of the General Laws.)

To do any lawful act which is necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of its incorporation. Without limiting or enlarging the effect of this general grant of authority, it is hereby specifically provided that every such corporation shall have power:

- (a) to have perpetual succession in its corporate name unless a period for its duration is limited in its articles of association or charter;
(b) to sue and be sued in its corporate name;
(c) to have and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure;
(d) to elect such officers and appoint such agents as its purposes require, and to fix their compensation and define their duties;
(e) to make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this state, or with the corporation's charter or articles of association, determining the time and place of holding and the manner of calling and of conducting meetings of its members and directors, the manner of electing its officers and directors, the mode of voting by proxy, and the number, qualifications, powers, duties and term of office of its officers and directors, and containing any other provision, whether of the same or of a different nature, for the management of the corporation's property and the regulation and government of its affairs;
(f) to make contracts, incur liabilities and borrow money.

Said corporation shall be entitled to take, hold, transmit and convey real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding in all one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000); provided, however, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply to corporations organized for the purposes of fostering, encouraging and assisting the physical location, settlement or resettlement of industrial and manufacturing enterprises within the state, and to whose members no profit shall ensue. If any corporation subject to the foregoing limitation desires to take and hold property to an amount exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) either originally or by amendment, such privilege shall be granted only by the general assembly on petition thereto

FOURTH. Said corporation shall be located in Warwick, Rhode Island.
(City or Town)

(Further provisions not inconsistent with law)
