Navigating a Course for the Future

Our Mission

The mission of the Rhode Island Association for the Education of Young Children is to ensure quality education, growth, and development for children, birth – age eight, and their families and to build and maintain a strong, diverse, and inclusive organization that enables us to achieve our goals for Rhode Island's children, families, and professionals in early care and education.

The Association actively works to promote best practice through providing:

- ❖ Professional development;
- ❖ Educational resources;
- ❖ Education of the public; and
- ❖ Advocacy for policies supportive of children, families, and those who work with them.

Leslie,

Some of the accomplishments made in the year June 2000 - June 2001 are:

Fall membership meeting which tried the new Open Space technique

Newsletter became a more professional system of notifying members of upcoming events

We increased our representation in community programs, more specific to early childhood

Annual Dinner

Month of the Young Child

Some program events were planned

Budget - we started with the $8,000 (what was our final balance?)

Facilitated and participated in many Leadership development events

Attended and represented RI in Conferences -

Keys to Quality

NE Conference

Developed a stronger system to report and disseminate information about public policy

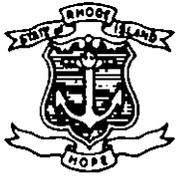

Worked with the restructuring process

Started working with Lorraine Cooke, Affiliate Representative

Found a place for RIAEYC to store documents, archive information, etc...
