(b) If more than one class: Total number of shares

(State (A) the number of the shares of each class thereof that are to have a par value and the par value of each share of each such class, and/or (B) the number of such shares that are to be without par value, and (C) a statement of all or any of the designations and the powers, preferences and rights, including voting rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, which are permitted by the provisions of title 7 of the General Laws in respect of any class or classes of stock of the corporation and the fixing of which by the articles of association is desired, and an express grant of such authority as it may then be desired to grant to the board of directors to fix by vote or votes any thereof that may be desired but which shall not be fixed by the articles.)

FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

Preemptive Rights. In case any holder of stock shall at any time desire to sell his stock, or any part thereof, he shall, before offering the same for sale to any other party, give notice in writing to the Corporation of his desire to sell and in such writing offer to sell the same to the Corporation at the lowest price at which he is willing to sell said stock. Within thirty days after the receipt of any such notice the Board of Directors shall elect whether to accept such offer. If the Board of Directors shall elect to purchase the shares so offered, the Secretary or Treasurer, or some other officer designated by the Board of Directors shall forthwith and within said thirty days deliver in person to such stockholder or mail by registered mail, postage prepaid, addressed to him at his usual post office address as stated on the books of the Corporation, a notice in writing, signed by the Secretary or Treasurer, or such officer, of the election of the Corporation to purchase such stock. Such notice shall state that such stockholder may receive the purchase price for such stock at the office of the Corporation upon transfer to the Corporation of the shares sold. If such notice of election to purchase shall not be given within the time above limited the stockholder shall be at liberty to sell his stock to any other party, provided that such sale is made within thirty days after the expiration of said thirty days and at a price not less than the price at which it was offered to the Corporation. The Directors may in particular instances consent to any such proposed sale, but no such consent or waiver shall extend to other or subsequent instances.
