FIFTH. Provisions (if any) dealing with the preemptive right of shareholders pursuant to §7-1.1-24 of the General Laws, 1956, as amended:

1. The shareholders shall not dispose of all or any part of their stock of the corporation, now owned or hereafter acquired by them, without the written consent of the other shareholders, or in the absence of such written consent, without first giving to the other shareholders and the corporation at least thirty (30) days written notice by certified mail of his or its intention to encumber or dispose of stock. The notice shall contain the price at which the shareholder is willing to dispose of the stock, the name and address of the person to whom the shareholder intends to transfer the stock if the offer is not accepted by the corporation. Within the thirty (30) day period, a special meeting of the shareholders shall be called by the corporation. At such meeting all the stock of the shareholder desiring to make any such disposition shall be offered for sale and shall be subject to an option to purchase on the part of the corporation which option shall be exercised, if at all, at the time of such meeting. The shareholder offering the stock shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting called for the purpose of considering such offer. The purchase price by the corporation shall be at the lowest price at which the offering shareholder is willing to dispose of his or its stock, and such purchase price shall be payable in cash or by certified or bank check within sixty (60) days of the exercise of the option.

2. If all of the stock of the offering shareholder is not purchased by the corporation in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of this Article Fifth, then the stock not so purchased shall be offered for sale and shall be subject to an option to purchase on the part of the other shareholders, which option shall be exercised, if at all, at the time of the meeting of shareholders called pursuant to the provisions of Section 1. The purchase price and the payment of the purchase price shall be as provided in Section 1.

SIXTH. Provisions (if any) for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation:

- (a) There shall be no Board of Directors of this corporation. Any and all of the powers normally vested in the Board of Directors shall be vested in the shareholders.
